Role of faith actors in addressing the climate crisis

Appeal to people's heart and soul

Utilize resources & assets effectively

At COP27

► Talanoa dialogue

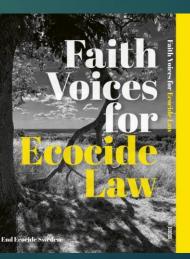

Press conference& Advocacy

Other events

* this time of ecological crisis, life is theratened on a global scale. We are at the roomshells it is time tan hear variables, the che respect and protection of nature. Faith communities have many results of the reservence of the lines yould and the glift of get that we can rise to the occasion. Financing has developed a step that we can rise to the occasion. Financing has developed being this. This should not contain a stematishic conduction of opporters from a five of them. The authors, distinguished faith developed and indigenous widem hereper, candidate on the twisme on the project on common home, cancel must have on the starts of project or common home. Succella must become a start to project or common home. Succella must become a starts to project or common home. Succella must become a starts to project or common home. Succella must become a starts to project or common home. Succella must become a starts to project or common home. Succella must become a starts to project or common home. Succella must become a starts to project or common home. Succella must become a starts to project or common home. Succella must become home a starts to project or common home. Succella must become home a starts to project or common home. Succella must become home a starts to project or the starts a starts of the starts and the starts of the starts and the

We, as people of faith, are deeply concerned about the ongoing destruction of our home, the Earth.

 demand a global response to prevent mass damage and destruction of ecosystems: ecocide.
 support creating legal protection for life on Earth by including ecocide as a crime against peace under the Rome Statun of the International Criminal Court. www.faithforecocidelaw.earth

